bar stock, pool and billiard tables.

The will of the late James M. Mitchell was yesterday admitted to record. All his estate is left in fee simple to his ventory of the estate. The will bears date October 21st, 1896.

The Great Tun of Heidelberg is one of the most remarkable "curios" in the world. It is the largest cask ever made and holds 49,000 gallons. It is thirty-four feet long, and the diameter in the middle is twenty-four feet. The Tun is probably the oldest existing cask, as it was built in 1751.

The will of Mrs. Alice Sullivan was admitted to record yesterday. Her estate consists of a house on Herd's Hill, which is not fully paid for. This is to be sold, her just debts paid, and the balance goes to her husband, George Sullivan. Mr. Moses Jones qualified as Executor without bond, as provided in the

By the election of William McKinley the Presidential chair will, for the second time, be filled by a Red Man. The first member of the Order was George Washington, who was a member of the Tammany Society, which afterward became the Red Men, and later the Improved Order of Red Men. The President-elect is a member of Fleetwood Tribe No. 139 of Canton, O., a rather suggestive name in view of the election returns. He is also a member of the Knights of Pythias.

HE'S RICH NOW!

McKinley's Elected.

lowing characteristic note from an old Mays-

PORTSMOUTH, O., Nov. 7th, 1896.

I will be rich enough to take a Maysville paper. Please send me THE DAILY LED-GER for six months. Send me bill of same and I will remit by return mail, as I do not know cost of same or would inclose in this letter. Yours respectfully, J. D. BRIDGES.

LET'S GIVE THANKS!

Governor Bradley Designates a Day For Thanksgiving.

The state or Nation that is unmindful of or ungrateful for the blessings bestowed by a merciful God cannot and should not deserve prosperity. To Him we owe all that we are and hope to be.
He has prevented war and pestilence, filled our granaries, preserved our honor and protected our institutions.

Therefore, the people of Kentucky are requested to assemble at their respective places of worship and observe Thursday, the 26th day of this month, in Thanksgiving for the blessings of the past and present, and in prayer for their continuance in the future.

Dated at Frankfort on the 5th day of November, the year of our Lord, 1896, and the 105th year of the Commonwealth.
WILLIAM O. BRADLEY,
E. D. Guffy, Assistant Sec. of State.

The Newport Rolling Mills employees were paid $8,500 in Gold Saturday. Three men were paid in silver.

McKinley will be the fifth President who was born in Ohio. His predecessors are Grant, Hayes, Garfield and Benjamin Harrison.

After having bored some 550 feet into mother earth, Messrs. Hunter & Irvine, we understand, will give over trying to find water at that particular place and start in another locality. The cost of sinking the abandoned well was about $500.

A week ago last Friday night the Maysville packet Courier sank at the Big Sandy Wharfboat after colliding with one of the piers of the Central Bridge at Cincinnati.
The boat is now afloat, and will be taken to the Marine Ways and given a thorough overhauling.

Rev. Joseph Rennie preached a powerful sermon at the Central Presbyterian Church last night, and will preach every night this week at that Church, to which everybody is invited.

Mr. John F. Ryan, who is at the side of his brother Joseph who was so badly cut at Valley on Saturday—a full account of which appeared in yesterday's LEDGER—writes this morning that his brother is out of danger and is gaining strength.

On or about December 1st Walter Schreiber of Newport will leave for Mexico, where he will remain for a year.
Schreiber made a bet with Walter Richards that if McKinley was elected he would live in Mexico for one year. Mr.
Schreiber says that he will follow his occupation in Mexico. Schreiber, up to the last election, was a Republican.

FIRE NEAR SARDIS.

The Home of Mr. William Chanslor Destroyed Last Night.

The pleasant country home of Mr. William J. Chanslor near Sardis was totally destroyed by fire about 12 o'clock last night, together with all the household contents, excepting the piano.

It is not known how the fire caught, but it is supposed that sparks falling set fire to the roof.

The building was worth about $3,500, and was insured for $3,000.

There was an insurance of $1,000 on the contents.

Both policies were held by Duley & Baldwin's Agency of this city.

Mrs. Chanslor has been visiting in Baltimore for some time, and the friends of Mr. Chanslor will learn with regret the loss of his home.

Chenoweth's Cold Cure will cure your

The marriage of Mr. Henry Ballard and Miss Elizabeth Schwartz was solemnized at Murphysville yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Calvert. The attendants were Robert Jefferson and Miss Daisy Gault, Honnan Crawford and Miss Loveless Wells. A large crowd of relatives and friends were present, who unite in tendering their best wishes to the happy couple.

NAMED FOR THE CABINET.

Sam Roberts Mentioned For McKin-ley's Postmaster General.

Major M. P. Handy, political Editor of The Chicago Times-Herald, and a confidant of the Republican "powers that be," in his regular budget of political gossip in The Times-Herald and New York Mail and Express, under the caption "Major Handy's Point of View," speculates on the Cabinet possibilities of the McKinley Administration.

Among possible candidates or suggestions for Postmaster General he names Sam J. Roberts of Lexington.

The Courier-Journal asked Chairman Roberts what he thought of the honor thrust upon him by Major Handy.

"Oh, there is nothing in that," said Mr.
Roberts. "The mention of me as a candidate for Postmaster General, or as a Cabinet possibility of any kind, is only a pleasant personal compliment from Major Handy. No one knows better than I do that I am not Cabinet timber, and I have no claims or aspirations in that direction.
My good newspaper friends have tendered me several dazzling places in Washington under the next Administration, without even consulting the President elect, but I am too firmly wedded to Kentucky and newspaperdom to accept any of them."

WE'LL SHAKE, HARRY!

An Ex-Maysvillian "Congratulates" From Salt Lake City.

The day following the late landslide THE LEDGER received the following telegram from Salt Lake City, extending congratulations on the result in Kentucky; but as "all doubtful things are uncertain" its publication was held up until it was finally determined that old Kentucky's Republican and Sound Money Democratic vote had overcome the Free-silver frauds in several counties and that the state was safely in the McKinley band-wagon.

"That result having been reached, here's our 'Shake', Harry!

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH,
November 4th, 1896.
Thomas A. Davis: My congratulations. Kentucky has done nobly. Shake.
HARRY T. DUKE.

Mr. Duke is Assistant Treasurer of the Wells-Fargo Express Company, ex-Treasurer of Salt Lake City, and one of the leading men in that wonderfully beautiful place.

The citizens of Vanceburg are rejoicing over the great victory for free turnpikes in Lewis county. It means a business boom for Vanceburg. There were only 784 votes cast against it, and the majority was 1,160. A great deal of credit for this victory is given to The Vanceburg Sun.

FIRST DISTRICT VOTE.

Chairman Sam J. Roberts Wants to Know About It.

Chairman Sam J. Roberts of the Republican State Campaign Committee has this to say about the phenomenal vote in the First Congressional District:

"In that District Bradley received 9,058 votes, Hardin received 13,170 votes and Pettit 4,745. In this campaign it could not be disputed that there was defection from the Democratic ranks.
Place the number of Gold Democrats who voted for McKinley at 2,000. The Palmer and Buckner vote is shown to be 500 by the returns. Deduct 2,500 from the Hardin vote and you have remaining 10,670 Democratic votes. Add to this the entire Populist vote of 4,745 in the District—the number of votes received by Pettit—and you have 15,415, the number of votes to which Bryan was entitled in the First. This concedes to him every Democrat in the District, except 2,500 Sound Money Democrats, and every Populist.

"Now, what do we find? We find that instead of receiving 15,415 votes, or a reasonable increase over that number growing out of the increased interest in the election among voters, that Mr. Bryan has received 25,990 votes—nearly double the amount to which he was entitled.
To show that this remarkable increase could not have come from Republican ranks, we increased our vote from 11,058, about what we thought we would get, on the basis of the Bradley vote, to 18,353, an increase of 1,694 votes. This is, of course, accounted for by the getting out of more than the ordinary Republican vote. But how, with all the disaffection existing, is the Democratic increase of 10,935 accounted for? That is what we propose to find out. I repeat that it is curious to say the least."

J. HENRY PECOR.

The "Prowler" of The Winchester Democrat most truthfully says: "Let a man die and he is suddenly full of good qualities, his faults are all forgotten and only the good is remembered. This is all right but it will do him no good then.
Why not pass over the shortcomings of the living while they are with you and you can do them some good. Be kind to the living means something. Be kind to the dead means nothing."
